

Satellite radio is just another technology, along with cable TV, to distribute news and information to the public. Customers such as myself, purchase these services and are very happy to have them.

I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160, which is NOT in the public interest.